

75th Founding Anniversaries of Mangyongdae and Kang Pan Sok Revolutionary Schools Marked with Grand Ceremony
Respected Comrade Kim Jong Un Makes Commemorative Speech

Pyongyang, October 13 (KCNA) -- Mangyongdae Revolutionary School and Kang Pan Sok Revolutionary School have significantly marked the 75th anniversaries of their founding. They have become established as the seat for education of children of revolutionary martyrs and as the base for training the backbones of our revolution decade after decade and century after century under the care of the great Party injecting eternal vitality to the lifeline of the Juche revolution that started on Mt Paektu. Along the course of their development associated with the noble revolutionary obligation of and outlook on the future generations of the peerlessly great men, the schools have brought up a large contingent of the indomitable revolutionaries and patriotic loyalists firmly inheriting the lineage of Mangyongdae and Paektu to promote the growth of our Party, state and revolutionary armed forces, and consolidated the cornerstone guaranteeing the eternity of the country and the revolution. This is a proud review of the long history of the schools.

A grand commemoration ceremony took place at Mangyongdae Revolutionary School Wednesday.

The respected Comrade Kim Jong Un, general secretary of the Workers' Party of Korea and president of the State Affairs of the DPRK, attended the ceremony.

The teaching staff, students and graduates were wrapped in immense passion and excitement as they were bestowed the greatest honor of commemorating the significant founding anniversaries of their schools in the presence of the respected Marshal whom they wished to see even in a dream.

Amid the playing of the welcome music, Kim Jong Un arrived at Mangyongdae Revolutionary School,

All the participants raised stormy cheers of "Hurrah!" for the great teacher and the kind-hearted Marshal leading step by step for the steady continuation of the lineage of the Juche revolution while holding the children of revolutionary martyrs in his broad bosom and looking after them with sunny love and affection.

He was greeted by senior officials of the schools.

Students of the schools presented Kim Jong Un with fragrant bouquets and put red ties around his neck.

Kim Jong Un waved back to the cheering participants, warmly congratulating the teaching staff, students and graduates of the schools on the anniversary day.

He was accompanied by Jo Yong Won, Choe Ryong Hae, Pak Jong Chon and Ri Pyong Chol, who are members of the Presidium of the Political Bureau of the WPK Central Committee.

Officials of the Party, government and military affairs who graduated from the schools attended the commemoration ceremony, together with officials, teaching staff, students and graduates of the schools.

Kim Jong Un made a significant commemorative speech.

He highly appreciated the brilliant feats performed in the sacred long road of the schools equivalent to the histories of our Republic and the regular revolutionary armed forces, saying that the 75-year-long histories of the schools are the ones that our Party has remained boundlessly loyal to the moral obligation to the revolutionary forerunners and devoted sincerity to training revolutionary reserves by staking its fate on the succession of the revolutionary cause.

He expressed his great trust that the revolutionary schools would take the lead as the models of teaching and education in the whole country in conformity with their important missions and basic duties as main pillars of the Juche revolution and pedigree establishments training the core backbones shouldering the sacred cause of our Party and powerfully pull the cause of Korean-style socialism in the forefront of the revolutionary ranks.

All the participants raised stormy cheers and applauded for the Marshal who provided immortal guidelines for the schools to firmly preserve and glorify their character and nature as the schools of the Workers' Party of Korea and reliably guarantee the dignity and prosperity of the eternal future of the nation and the revolution.

There was a march-past of the students of the schools commemorating their 75th founding anniversary.

Greatly satisfied and delighted to see the undaunted look full of passion of loyalty and spirit of the students of the schools ready to invariably uphold and follow our Party only and devotedly defend the revolutionary cause of Juche, Kim Jong Un raised his hands as a sign of encouragement.

Kim Jong Un went round the Revolutionary Museum of Mangyongdae Revolutionary School.

He said that it is the greatest treasure which cannot be bartered for anything and utmost pride for our Party, state and people to have such house of the great revolution guaranteeing the eternal bright future of our cause, the supreme seat of educating children of the revolutionary martyrs, the second to none center in the world, and giving steady continuity to the original blood vessel of the revolution.

He asserted that it is the idea of training revolutionary reserves by the Party Central Committee to faithfully bring up the children of the revolutionary martyrs as the resolute fighters reliably carrying forward the idea, faith and tradition of loyalty possessed by the forerunners and to become hardcore members of our revolution and pioneers in the progress and development.

He had a significant photo taken with teaching staff and students of the schools, voicing his expectation and conviction that they would always cherish their origin of the children of revolutionary martyrs and perform pivotal roles in accomplishing the Party's cause, as befits true sons and daughters of the Workers' Party of Korea who are raised with the water, air and soul of Mangyongdae.

At the end of the photo session, thunderous cheers of "Hurrah!" broke out again and fireworks were displayed and chanting of "Kim Jong Un" and "devoted defence" reverberated far and wide.

The commemoration ceremony became a significant occasion that strikingly demonstrated the high enthusiasm of the successors to cherish the Marshal's boundless trust and loving care for the children of the revolutionary martyrs getting deeper day by day as the bloodline of their destinies, remain absolutely loyal to the idea and leadership of the Party Central Committee and make dedication to the overall development of the Korean-style socialism in the van of the struggle, and the continuance and invincibility of the revolutionary cause of Juche getting all the more firm despite the replacement of generations. -0-

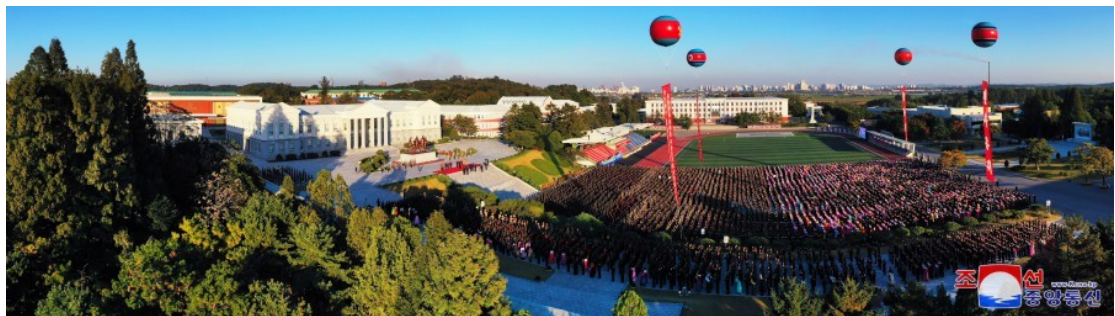

Respected Comrade Kim Jong Un Guides Test-Fire of Long-Range Strategic Cruise Missiles

Pyongyang, October 13 (KCNA) -- A test-fire of long-range strategic cruise missiles was successfully conducted on October 12 amid powerful practical measures being taken to signally bolster up the national war deterrent as required by the prevailing situation and revolution.

Kim Jong Un, general secretary of the Workers' Party of Korea (WPK) and chairman of the Central Military Commission of the WPK, guided the test-fire of the long-range strategic cruise missiles on the spot.

Members of the Party Central Military Commission watched the test-fire.

The test-fire was aimed at further enhancing the combat efficiency and might of the long-range strategic cruise missiles deployed at the units of the Korean People's Army for the operation of tactical nukes and reconfirming the reliability and technical safety of the overall operational application system.

Two long-range strategic cruise missiles flew for 10 234 s along an oval and pattern-8 flight orbits in the sky above the West Sea of Korea and clearly hit the target 2 000 km away.

The successful test-fire clearly proved the correctness, technical advantages and actual war efficiency of the overall weapon system.

Expressing great satisfaction over the result of the test-fire, the respected Comrade Kim Jong Un highly appreciated the high reaction capabilities of our nuclear combat forces which proved again their full preparedness for actual war to bring the enemies under their control at a blow through the unconditional, mobile, precise and powerful counterstrike by any weapon system.

Stressing again that the test-fire is our another clear warning to the enemies and the practical verification and clear demonstration of the absolute reliability and combat capacity of our state's war deterrent, Kim Jong Un added that we should continue to expand the operational sphere of the nuclear strategic armed forces to resolutely deter any crucial military crisis and war crisis at any time and completely take the initiative in it.

Saying that to steadily bolster up the national defence capabilities is our consistent and invariable revolutionary policy and keynote of struggle which can never be delayed and should neither be postponed in order to defend the dignity and sovereignty of the country and its right to existence, Kim Jong Un stressed that we should focus all efforts on the endless and accelerating development of the national nuclear combat armed forces. Expressing expectation and conviction that the nuclear combat armed forces of the Republic would perfect the military preparedness more correctly and confidently, Kim Jong Un had a significant photo session with the members who contributed to the successful test-fire. -0-
