

Children Provided with New School Uniforms

The children of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea are going to school in joy. Providing all the children across the country with uniforms, shoes, school bags and school things at state expense is a consistent policy of the ruling Workers' Party of Korea and the state.