

First Lesson at School

These are the first-year pupils of a primary school at the first lesson of the new school year of 2022 that started on April 1. They will receive free compulsory education for five years at primary school, three years at junior middle school and another three years at senior middle school.