

Korea Rehabilitation Clinic for Children with Disabilities

Located in Pyongyang, the capital city of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, the clinic helps preschool-age children with disabilities to rehabilitate and gives them special education. Persons and organizations from foreign countries and international organizations are interested in the cooperation and exchange with the clinic.