

Making Active Use of Natural Energy Sources

The world is now faced with a serious problem of exhaustion of fossil energy resources and ever-worsening abnormal climate caused by environmental pollution and global warming. In consideration of this situation, the Democratic People's Republic of Korea makes active use of natural energy sources.