

Respected Comrade Kim Jong Un Has Photo Session with Students and Working Youths

Pyongyang, May 2 (KCNA) -- Kim Jong Un, general secretary of the Workers' Party of Korea (WPK) and president of the State Affairs of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, Sunday had a photo session with the students and working youths in Pyongyang City who contributed to the successful military parade celebrating the 90th founding anniversary of the Korean People's Revolutionary Army (KPRA).

Attending the session were Ri Il Hwan, secretary of the WPK Central Committee, and Kim Yong Hwan, chief secretary of the Pyongyang City Committee of the WPK.

The youths and students were filled with great excitement and joy over the fact that they were to have a significant photo taken with the respected Comrade Kim Jong Un after attending the greatest-ever political and military festival which fully demonstrated the dignity of our country and the might of its great single-minded unity. When Kim Jong Un arrived at the photo session venue, all the participants broke into stormy cheers of "hurrah!" for him who has vigorously guided Korean-style socialism only to victory and glory, always valuing the youth and regarding the youth issue as the top priority state affair to train the young people to be a huge unit of successors.

He warmly waved back to the enthusiastically cheering youths and students, highly appreciating their contribution to glorifying the 90th anniversary of the KPRA as an unprecedented, grand festival of single-minded unity and as a showcase theatre of the national power.

Noting that the spirit of our youths is very high, he said the rosy future of our-style socialism is for the youths and it is the sacred patriotic cause that should be hastened by their efforts.

Our youths have regarded the loyalty to the Party and revolution as their high honor and pride and spent their youthful days with ardent patriotism and high enthusiasm for the revolution and struggle, he said, adding it is the proud traits peculiar to the Korean youths that can neither be seen nor be imitated in any society of the world. And he extended thanks to them who rendered excellent service to the successful military parade, the largest-ever in history, with their good teamwork and artistry, strikingly displaying the sense of organization and solidarity of our society.

Expressing his deep trust and expectation that our youths and students will become dependable pillars playing a leading role in the struggle for the country's prosperity by getting intent on the studies with the same high ardor and revolutionary mettle as were displayed by them in the celebration event, he had a meaningful photo session with them.

When the photo session was over, loud chants of "Kim Jong Un" and "Kyolsaongwi" (devoted defence) shouted by the young vanguard of the WPK resounded throughout the sky of the capital city of Pyongyang.

Encouraged by such warm love and trust of the great father, the students and working youths made their burning pledge to more vigorously advance toward the rosy future of socialism and communism, displaying to the full the strength based on loyalty of all sons and daughters in this country and the honor of being the youths of a powerful country who firmly believe in and follow only the WPK. -0-
