

Pyongyang International Football School

Pyongyang International Football School is situated near the famous May Day Stadium in Pyongyang, the capital city of the Democratic People’s Republic of Korea. It is equipped with a school building, playgrounds, dormitory and cultural and service facilities. It cooperates with A-class coaches of the Netherlands, Brazil and other countries and other professionals of international fame.