

Second-day Sitting of Third Enlarged Meeting of Eighth Central Military Commission of WPK Held

Pyongyang, June 23 (KCNA) -- The second-day sitting of the Third Enlarged Meeting of the Eighth Central Military Commission of the Workers' Party of Korea (WPK) was held on June 22.

Kim Jong Un, general secretary of the WPK and chairman of the Central Military Commission of the WPK, guided the meeting.

The second-day sitting continued the discussion on the major agenda items presented to the enlarged meeting.

It discussed the work of additionally confirming the operation duties of the frontline units of the Korean People's Army (KPA) and modifying the operation plans, according to the Party's military and strategic plan, and the issues related to reorganization of key military organizational formations.

Guided by the vice-chairmen of the Central Military Commission of the WPK, the General Staff of the KPA studied and discussed the relevant issues, compiled the results and drew up an important document.

The KPA General Staff reported to the Central Military Commission of the WPK the results of the discussion on the key issues and preparation of the document.

Expressing the strategic view and decision of the Party Central Committee adopting important military measures to enhance the operational capabilities of the frontline units, the respected Comrade Kim Jong Un stressed the importance of this work and clarified all the principles, tasks and ways for implementing it.

The meeting reconfirmed the tasks to be fulfilled by different sectors to thoroughly implement the Party's revolutionary army-building line and strategic policies.

The Central Military Commission of the WPK continues its discussion on the presented agenda items. -0-
